Wolverines Lose, Win In Weekend Games In Nevada

Lovelock To Play Here In Basketball Contest On Saturday

by JOHN FIRPO

The Tahoe-Truckee Wolverines' hopes or the "A" Division championship were slightly damaged last Friday as they dropped a game, which went into sudden death, 55-52 to the Winnemucca Buckaroos. Saturday, the Wolverines traveled from Winnemucca to Lovelock where they defeated the Lovelock Mustangs, 67-48. The split left the Wolverines with a 4-2 record in conference play.

At Winnemucca, Friday, a layup by Winnemucca gave them the game, 55-52. Sudden death means the first team to score two points wins the game. Sudden death follows the first overtime. Winnemucca led throughout the game 12-9, 24-19, 37-35; until a Wolverine rally in the second half saw the Wolverines trail 35-37 at the end of the third frame. With the game drawing to a close the Wolverines led 47-45 and began to stall. With one minute left, a TnT man traveled and the Buckaroos

Sewer Problem At Squaw Is Settled

In a move to meet objections raised by Wayne Poulsen, Squaw Valley landowner, to the proposed location of a modern sewage disposal plant to serve the 1960 Olympic winter games, the California Olympic Commission Friday authorized engineers to draw plans for location of the plant on U.S. Forest Service lands in the valley.

The action was taken at a commission meeting conducted by Charles R. Blyth, chairman.

Construction of the facility on forest service lands, which are under 30-year lease to the commission, instead of on a 6-acre parcel owned by Poulsen, now under condemnation ,would increase the cost of the plant but would accomplish two important pur-

Two Escape Death As Power Line Falls

Two division of highway employes experienced a narrow brush with death at 4:30 a.m. today when the rotary plow they were operating, ran into an electric power line, which had fallen across the highway near the Ed Holtz home at the east end of Donner Lake.

The lucky men are John Marin and Jason White, both of Truckee.

The 14,000-volt live wire hit the truck and using their heads, the two men remained in the partly insulated cab and radioed their predicament. Frank Gaiennie, Sierra Pacific manager in this area, was notified, advised the men to remain where they were, and shut off the power until the crisis was over. Had either contacted the charged equipment, it might have meant instant death.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Word from Washington, D.C., that the outlook for establishment of a Coast Guard unit at Lake Tahoe is probable in the near future, should be met with unified approval. For years, various organizations, including the chamber of commerce, have worked to have this important policing agency installed to minumize the dangers which each summer plague the area. A number of accidents that might well have been avoided by adequate policing have occurred, and as time passes, the need becomes more and more apparent. Increased use of the lake and shore line has amplified the need for better protection. It is most gratifying that our local and national officials have taken recognition of the need and will do everything possible to bring about the solution.

Donner Zone Meet Set For March 13

Nevada County Planning Commissioners last week set Thursday, March 13 for a public hearing on proposed zoning of the Donner Lake area as one of the first steps of a county master plan and discussed how this resort region would be zoned.

Notices of the proposed zoning with legal descriptions of the area would be posted in three places in the Donner Lake-Truckee area and in the courthouse. These maps show plots of land outlined in colors designating commercial and residential zones.

The plans for Donner Lake touched off discussion on further zoning of the eastern end of the county in line with the forthcoming Winter Olympics in nearby Squaw Valley which are expected to bring a rush of residents and businesses to the area including the town of Truckee and its adjacent Gateway suburb.

Planning Consultant A.T. Parsons cited the potential of this town if properly zoned and was authorized to obtain maps and necessary property descriptions before discussion and preparations continue.

Former Local War Vet Kills Self At Sacramento Home

Byron Johnson Shoots Self As Result Of Marital Difficulties

Funeral services were held at Sacramento Monday under the auspices of Veterans Affiliated Council for Byron Johnson, 35, formerly of Truckee who committed suicide, according to coroner's deputies, by putting a rifle bullet through the roof of his mouth.

Johnson was found in his car by deputy sheriffs. They were called by Johnson's stepfather, Martin Johnson, when he saw a .22 caliber rifle in the car parked on the senior Johnson's driveway.

Johnson said his stepson had threatened suicide a number of times and was upset over marital difficulties.

Johnson attended school here, where the family formerly lived and gained a reputation as an outstanding skier as a young man.

Burial was in Veterans Plot, City Cemetery.

Johnson, an employe of state department of natural resources, died Friday. He was the husband of Dorothy; father of Byron and Jana Johnson; son of Martin and the late Doris M. Johnson, brother of Mrs. Jean Coleman, Mrs. Marie Forrest and Martin Johnson, Jr.

Slack, currently stationed at the Mountain Home, Idaho, Airbase, was visiting his family at Donner Lake while on leave from the air force.

Arthur Williams of Reno suffered minor injuries Monday at 1 a.m. when his car collided with a truck and trailer operated by Ernest Wilkerson of Galena, Ill., six miles east of Truckee. Coast Guard Unit May Be Installed For Lake Tahoe

WASHINGTON—Senator Tom Kuchel and William F. Knowland of California, and Alan Bible and George Malone of Nevada, this week joined in urging the U.S. Coast Guard to establish a water patrol on Lake Tahoe.

In a conference in Bible's Washington office, Joseph F. McDonald, president of the Nevada-California Lake Tahoe Association, said heavy use of the interstate lake makes the protective services of the Coast Guard "imperative."

The commandant of the Coast Guard, Vice Admiral Alfred Richmond, said he would order an immediate report made to congress in order that a request for money to finance the operation can be considered.

Chamber Learns Of Washoe Project

Communities on the east slope of the Sierra in this region are surrounded by lakes and streams, but have no right to the waters therein.

This startling fact was disclosed Friday during the luncheon meeting of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce when Cecil Edmunds, member of the California Water Compact Commission, spoke on the Washoe Project.

In the work on the commission, Edmunds told the 35 members attending the luncheon, the California group has been faced with a problem of securing sufficient water for the state of origin to keep normal industry supplied. The Nevada interests, he said, have in years past, applied for and received virtually all water originating in California.

In order to even supply domestic needs, Edmunds declared, proper application must be made. This point, he added has not been complied with in many instances, and people who are pumping water from lakes and streams for their own use without permits are in violation and sooner or later will be required to secure permission for the water or be deprived of it.

Edmunds said that the Washoe Project financing is still in the future, while national defense projects are being emphasized in the national budget. He said that in all likelihood, no funds will be available until after 1959 or 1960.

The chamber, presided over by N. F. Dolley, went on record favoring a local building committee to designate locations and types of structures in various sections of the community until such a time as a pending zoning ordinance can be implemented.

Calvin Sassarini Killed In Crash Of Car Near Sonoma

Prominent School Official Was Well Known In Community

Requiem mass was read this morning for Calvin J. Sassarini, 48, well known former Truckee resident and for the past eight years district superintendent of the elementary schools at Sonoma, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident Sunday.

Sassarini, according to reports of the mishap, was returning to his home after visiting his wife, the former Juanita Ogen of Truckee, who was a patient in a Santa Rosa hospital. The weather was bad and sheets of rain were falling. Apparently on a side road near Kenwood, the driver applied his brakes and the car skidded and plunged off the highway.

The driver was killed instantly, but his eldest son, Dennis, 15, the ony passenger, was thrown clear and not badly hurt.

Mass was held in St. Francis Solano Church at Sonoma and interment in the cemetery there. The Bates and Hart Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Sassarini was a native of Truckee and son of Jerome B. Sassarini, now a resident of Sonoma. He attended San Francisco State College, had his first teaching assignment in the western part of Nevada County and from there entered the army. He served wth the Army Air Forces in the Burma theater.

Upon returning, Sassarini went to Forestville, Sonoma County, where he taught and was superintendent until he advanced to the position he held at the time of his death. He was one of the most prominent and highly respected residents of his community.

He leaves, besides his wife, three children, Dennis, 15, Trina, 11, and Larry, 4. There are two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Croly of Sacramento and Mrs. Frank Nitechi of Milwaukee. Mrs. Lucca Sassarini of Truckee is an aunt and Nick and August, also of Truckee are cousins. The latter two planned to attend the service today.

Board Decides On New College Site

Despite a last minute appeal by the Auburn Chamber of Commerce that an expert or experts be employed to make the best selection, the board of trustees of Sierra College District set the procedure for purchase of the 160 acre Raymond Law tract between Loomis-Penryn and Lincoln for the new home of Sierra College.

By a vote of 3 to 2, members adopted the motion of Richard A. Lee of Lincoln, to make the Law tract the number one site and appointed appraisers and a negotiator to carry out the intent.

On the final vote, the motion was favored by Lee, Herbert T. Perry and William Dietrich. Voting against the motion were Harold Welch of Truckee and William O. Francis of Mt. Vernon.

Selection of a site has been the topic of controversy in the western end of Placer County and rumors of pressure by political figures and "deals", according to the Auburn Chamber of Commerce prompted that organization to ask that an expert or experts be engaged to reach a peaceful solution.

"The expert or experts," the letter written by Ronald G. Cameron, chamber president suggested, "should be free of all political or other pressure. This recommendation is being made because we believe that the possible bitterness that is developing is of sufficient importance to warrant this action."

STRICTLY STRICKLAND

By Bill Strickland

The eighth running of the Donner Trail Memorial Marathon will be held this year on the twenty-ninth of March. This event, started in 1949 by Fran Couillard, is one of the most gruelling tests of a man's stamina of any of the marathon races in the county. It starts at 7135 feet Donner Summit—comes down the old State Highway to Soda Springs, crosses the Southern Pacific Railroad at that point, follows U.S. 40 between the railroad and highway to Rainbow Tavern—crosses the Yuba River—on past Big Bend and the Auburn Ski Club grounds—climbs Yuba Gap, then drops down into Carpenter Flat a Emigrant Gap. In all, a 26-mile run. There will be seven classifications and they will be started in the following order:

Men's—Foreign, open, class A, intercollegiate, veterans, juniors and women. All except the juniors and women run the full course. The juniors start at Donner Summt and finish at Soda Springs—a distance of about three and one-half miles. The record for that distance is held by Jim Harris of Truckee—23 minutes, 55 seconds (23:55). Bob Strickland has been conditioning himself by getting off the school bus at the Summit and running to Soda every night. It's paying off, too. By his placement of fifth in the InterMountain School meet last week indicated, and of running the DTMM course last Thursday in an unofficial 25 minutes, 30 seconds (25:30). The women's course starts at Rainbow Tavern, and though it is 10 miles shorter, the second half of the course is much tougher. Sven Johansen, who was the last winner, also set the present record time of 2:48.34—that's really moving. Sven is now in Finland with the United States F.I.S. team, but will be back in this country in time to participate. It should be one of the best ever.

I've heard quite a bit of controversy over the listing of where a skier is from, lately. I would like to clarify the why and wherefors as much as possible. As a rule, the racer is listed as being from the area in which his race club is located; i.e., Hannes Scholl, Sugar Bowl, Norden. Sigi Engle, Sun Valley, Idaho. im Baker, Reno; etc. None of the above are natives of those particular places, but are presumably skiing for clubs in those localities. What brought it to mind was an article in a Nevada paper which stated that the Winter Sports Writers of California were saying that some of Nevada' top racers were Californians. The California writers did not say they were native sons, or that their homes were in California. The implication was merely that they were skiing for clubs located in California—which quite a few out-of staters do.

The first junior point meet of the year is just now being completed at Mammoth Mountain—since this is being written before any of the results are in, we have the names of several of our Mountain Top speedsters will be in the top ten. Kit Schull, Squaw Tahoe Club; Starr Walton, Sugar Bowl Ski Club; Mary Reich, Sugar Bowl Ski Club; "Smiley" Tschopp, Squaw Tahoe Ski Club.

Washoe Project Is Urged For Early Start By Agencies

The California-Nevada Interstate Compact Commission adopted a resolution urging the congress to appropriate sufficient funds for the immediate commencement of construction of the Washoe Project during fiscal year 1959.

The resolution noted that the project will provide badly needed flood control, conservation of water for consumptive purposes, generation of electric power, and enhancement of fish, wildlife and recreational resources which will benefit both Nevada and California.

It also pointed out that the joint compact commission had agreed upon recommended terms and conditions for inclusion in permits to appropriate water for the Washoe project which will protect the interests of both Nevada and California.

Water Claims

Key point in the agreement on water rights provisions which will be presented to the California State Water Rights Board during February grants California appropriate rights of up to 30,000 acre-feet annually of the present unappropriated water in the Little Truckee River. However, this would be limited to 30|156th of the present unappropriated water which could be stored in a 156,000 acre-foot reservoir at the Stampede site.

The commission members discussed at length the possible basis for allocation of water to Nevada and to California and the definition of terms to be used. This resulted in the appointment by Commission Chairman Robert J. Newell of a special "definition" committee for the purpose of presenting proposed definitions at a future meeting. Newell named Robert B. Burns of Fredericksburg, Alpine County, as chairman of the committee with William Bechdolt of Tahoe City as the other California member. Named to represent Nevada were Fred H. Settelmeyer of Gardnerville and Will M. Bliss of Glenbrook, with Norman D. Brown of Smith to serve as a temporary alternate for Bliss.

To Collaborate

The joint commission's engineering committee will collaborate with the definitions committee in a study of the bases of allocation of water.

Col. A. M. Barton, chairman of the California commission, read into the record a letter addressed to Edmund F. Smith, chairman of the Eldorado County Water Committee, in which Barton disagreed with an earlier statement by Smith that there is adequate water for the ultimate development of the south end of Lake Tahoe.

"While there is sufficient water physically available in the Lake Tahoe basin for future development of the area," Barton's letter stated, "it may not be possible to develop this water for local use because of prior rights to this water which are held by downstream users of the Truckee River. Operation studies by the California-Nevada Interstate Company Commission of Nevada indicate that if present water conservation facilities in the Truckee River system were operated during the 15-year period, 1923 through 1937, there would be no surplus water available from the Lake Tahoe basin after satisfying the rights of the downstream water users."

Howard Cincotta, Barbara Hampton, Janis Giannini, and Penny Clark also put on a skit. Donnie Bury, Kenny Kimball, Roger Michener, Mike Keehn, Sandra Snyder, Penny Clark, Jayne Shontz, Linda Sprague did imitations of the Ink Spots.

NEWS NOTES FROM TAHOE

by MYRTLE CARNELL

P.T.A. Entertainment

A very wonderful time was enjoyed by all of the persons attending the P.T.A. meeting last Thursnight. In charge of the entertainment for the evening was Vernon Reynolds, principal of the Tahoe Lake School. Several pantomimes were given and a short skit. Also some folk songs were sung by Reynolds' 4th, 5th and 6th grade choir. Outstanding among their selections was the "Happy Wanderer." The Ink Spots' record of "Do I Care" was mimicked very well by four charming young ladies all decked out in greasepaint. Another of the Ink Spots' records was also done by a group of young boys, Don Dury, Kenny Kimball, Roger Mirchner, and Mike Keen impersonated the great singing group in "More Than Words Can Tell." An interesting and rather amusing note to this program was the pinch hitting that Reynolds very ably did for Gary Henry who was not able to attend. To those of you who were not there—Mr. Reynolds turned back the clock and became a student again. I think he certainly deserves to be congratulated on his participation.

Another number very well received was the "Four Musicians," portrayed by Karen Henry, Howard Cincotta, Dotty Ronan, and Mr. Reynolds. A skit called "How Do You Do and Shake Hands," was presented by Ericka McLane, Kim Turner, Howard Cincotta and Mr. Reynolds. The students also received a short play, the cast included Penny Clarke, Barbara Hampton, Janice Gianinni, Howard Cincotta and Mr. Reynolds.

The Pacific Telephone Co. contributed to the evening's entertainment by loanig the P.T.A. the film "Mr. Sun," which was greatly enjoyed. Although weather conditions were anything but good there was a full house of people who were very glad they had braved the elements.

Fire Commissioners Meet

Last Thursday night was also the meeting of the Tahoe City Fire Commissioners who met with Fred Kaiser of the Board of Fire Underwrter of the Pacific to discuss the facilities and equipment of the Tahoe City Fire Department and the possibility in the future of the lower fire insurance rates. Also invited to the meeting was the board of commissioners of the Tahoe City Public Utility District.

Church Notes

Father O'Neill would like to stress that mass is still being held at 8 a.m. Sunday mornings at Corpus Christi Chapel at Tahoe City.

The Community Church at the St. Nicholas Mission is holding youth meetings. This Sunday at 5 p.m. Girls in high school, junior high, and sixth grade will meet for instructions, recreation, games and refreshments. The following Sunday the boys of this same age group will meet.

Happy News

Joe Duffy is again home with us, recuperating from his operation. According to his daughter, Eunice, Joe says he was never so glad to see snow. He would like to thank all of his many friends for thinking of him and for all of your cards and letters.

Also home from the hospital is Dottie Van Allen. She expects to be back on the job in a week or so.

Knitting

It is not an uncommon sight at Tahoe in the winter to see the women busily knitting, but knitting is not for women alone as is being very well proved by a group of young gentlemen who have taken up this art. They are Martie Spitsen, Johnny Carnell, Brent Bradley and the Burmer boys. They feel that knitting is a good pastime—and—with good results for mother. Their projects are stoles for their mothers, and how proud they'll be to wear them.

Births

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hank Stueven at Tahoe Forest Hospital Saturday, January 25 at 10:20 p.m. was a dark-haired little lad by the name of Jerry C., weighing a good 7 pounds, and 11 ounces. The young man is now at home with his very happy parents and sister, Karrie. Congratulations on your lovely family.

Away

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bechdolt, Jr., are on vacation at Pebble Beach. They flew down this past week for some relaxation and of course, golf. From there they plan to go to Pittsburg and then home again in about a week.

Away for the winter are Mr. and Mrs. DeWalt. They are spending the winter with Dee's mother and father in Bowling Green. The grandparents have never seen the little grandson, so it should be quite a thrilling meeting.

Parting Thought

That about winds the news up for this week, a parting thought—take a piece of paper and make a list on one side of the problems you have on the other write your blessings. The latter is bound to be the longer and you'll walk away thinking how lucky you are.

CHURCH NOTES

TRUCKEE BIBLE CHURCH

Roy S. Rhoades, pastor.

Last Sunday was the first of three messages on the subject of "The Christian Home." The series will deal with the responsibility of parents toward their children, the husband's obligation in the home, and the wife's place in the home. The Christian home according to Scripture is the answer to our two prevailing problems today of divorce and child delinquency.

After the services Sunday Pastor and Mrs. Rhoades went to Virginia City, Nev., to begin an afternoon Sunday school and Bible class for the adults. From there they left for a week in Portland, Ore., to attend the Multnomah School of the Bible Missionary Conference Week.

The women's Bible class will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ken Hedlund with Mrs. William Englehart, Jr., leading the discussion. In the absence of Pastor Rhoades, Wes Boyer will conduct the regular Wednesday evening power hour.

Jeff Schmidt of Tahoe City is one of the 11-man Sierra College ski team to attend the intercollegiate meet to be held tomorrow at Sugar Bowl.

NORTH TAHOE

By JUDGE HARRY CHARRISON

Board Meets

At a meeting of the fire commissioners on January 23, called by Chairman J. V. Sergi, a discussion was held relative to sending a certificate, showing the legality of the North Tahoe Fire District to the secretary of state by March 11 to assure continuation of the district. Robert Howell reported that he had contacted Assistant District Attorney Wiley and had been advised that the district is responsible for paying utilities and maintenance charges against the fire department. It was decided to publish the minutes of the regular meeting so that all interested people could be advised of the board's action. Dates of future meetings also will be published so that anyone wishing may attend. The regular meeting will be held on the first Thursday of each month. Mrs. Don Barkhurst suggested that since the district has made payment on the big fire truck that it should be transferred to the district and a meeting with the North Tahoe Fire Protection Corporation will be held to discuss the matter.

Garbage Problems

Roy Porath, chairman of the board of directors of the North Tahoe Fire Control Corp., called a meeting in order to meet with Forest Ranger Roy Saarni, Tom and Noel Hulbert and the fire commissioners to discuss fire hazards at the garbage disposal site. It was felt that more satisfactory arrangements must be made to meet the needs of the fast growing community in that regard. The garbage contractor, Hulbert, said he was attempting to find a solution to the problem but that many matters must be taken into consideration. Saarni pointed out that now a legal fire district has been formed, the forest service feels that it is no longer necessary to keep a full time ranger stationed in the area. The board asked that this be reconsidered until such a time as the district can have a full time fire chief, possibly until December, since the district is operating on borrowed money until that time. Saarni said he would see if it is possible to keep the ranger here during the coming season.

Joint Meeting

At a joint meeting between the boards of commissioners of the the district and corporation, it was agreed that the fire truck could be turned over to the district. Roy Porath pointed out that in effect none of the other assets of the corporation could be surrendered until the fire station is completed in accordance with a contract with the forest service.

Election Planned

Three permanent directors of the fire district will be elected early in April and anyone desiring to seek the post may secure forms from the county clerk or by contacting Mrs. Nell Barkhurst. Filings must be at least 40 days prior to the election.

Square Dancers

The Tahoe Twirlers announce the square dance scheduled for Saturday has been cancelled so that all may attend the March of Dimes dance at Crystal Bay Club that night. The next regular dance will be February 2 at Carpenters Hall when the group will host a pot luck dinner and Valentine party.

Half A Century

January 23rd, Dave Ashton celebrated his 50th birthday at a gathering held at his home in Kings Beach, among those present were Buzz and Marcella Goodman of Virginia City, Red and Mary Lou Waddell and Young Michael, games and refreshments were the order of the evening.

Illness

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Robert Molsberry is in St. Mary's Hospital in Reno. We are also very sorry to hear that Mrs. Betty Powell, is in the Washoe Medical Center, and is reported to be very sick. We certainly wish for a speedy recovery.

Sierra Winter Stock Group

January 5th a meeting was held at the home of Joy Plunkett at Incline Beach, for the purpose of forming a little theater group, and is to be known as the Sierra Winter Stock Group. Officers were elected as follows: President, Jimmy Dee Chastain; vice president, Rev. Earl Langguth; secretary and treasurer, Joy Plunkett. Reading committee, Minor Roots, Alice Price of Tahoe Vista; Maryland Turner of Truckee. The group will put on a short skit at the VFW March of Dimes dance at the Crystal Bay Club February 1, at 8 p.m.

Kings Beach Nursery

Kings Beach Nursery is going strong but has room for more children. Many mothers are fully acquainted with the help they receive at the nursery. If interested in the nursery program, please stop in at the Community Methodist Church on Monday, Wednesday or Friday mornings, or phone Liberty 6-2404.

Students

Kings Beach School, I understand, has no less than 150 students with but four teachers. But at that they are doing a swell job.

Business Association

There was a wonderful attendance at the association meeting, held at the Lake Tahoe Monte Carlo, last Sunday night. After dinner many important items were discussed. Harry McIntire, president, presided.

BUSY MEETING OF ROTARY CLUB HELD

KINGS BEACH — The Rotary Club of Brockway met at the Crystal Bay Club for their regular meeting on Monday with Fred Baker presiding.

This being the annual meeting of the fathers, sons and daughters, each Rotarian introduced his son or daughter and 48 were present.

The president announced that all donations and fines would go to the March of Dimes, When all proceeds were counted it was found that with a split from a meeting with the Tahoe City Club, the total amounted to $122.50.

A new member was inducted into the club under the classification of capital investments, he being Harry S. Hooper a past president of the Kawinas Club of Yuba City.

The meeting was turned over to Tom Sutton who showed pictures of a hunting trip taken a few years ago in northern British Columbia. The party was composed of Tom Sutton, John Rayburn, Joe King and Wes Farley.

George Selkirk of the Tahoe City Club announced that he had arranged for a joint meeting of the Brockway, Tahoe City and Truckee clubs to meet at the Crystal Bay Club on February 3rd, with the Brockway club acting as host.

took the ball and later scored to send the game into the overtime. Both teams scored evenly in the overtime, with a Buckaroo man missing a free throw that could have won the game for the home team and the overtime ended 52-52. In the sudden death period Winnemucca had possession and Earl Cornforth, Winnemucca guard, made a layup just after one of his teammates missed the second shot of a 1-1 free throw count.

High point man for the evening was Floyd Cooper with a red-hot 23 points. Teammates Ken Vaughan and Berger Nelson each had nine tallies.

Saturday, the Wolverines found the going easier as they took a 67-48 verdict over the Lovelock Mustangs. The Wolverines trailed 8-10 in the first quarter, but after that Lovelock couldn't get within 10 points of the Wolverines.

Ken Vaughan led the scoring with 19 points followed by Floyd Cooper with 14. Highlight of the game was at the end of the third quarter when Vaughan sank a half-court shot to end the third frame.

In the J.V. tilts the "Cubs" came up with their second win after losing earlier to the Winnemucca J.V. Their loss, 57-30, was the result of poor ball-handling and wild shots. High point man was Bob Merica with 10 and then came Sam Medford with nine. Saturday the "Cubs" picked up a surprising win as they tromped the Mustang J.V., 47-20. Bob Merica tallied 16 points and Marty Kumle, eight.

Game Here

This week, on Saturday, the Lovelock Mustangs will travel here for a return game with the Wolverines. It is the only game this week and is an "A" Conference clash. Game time for the preliminary tilt is 6:45 p.m.

SEWER PROBLEM

poses, according to organizing committee representatives.

Poulsen's objection would presumably be overcome, the construction of the plant could begin this summer in time to make it available next winter to serve the permanent buildings that will rise in the valley this year. The commission's condemnation suit to acquire certain Poulsen acreage for the games, pending in Placer County Superior Court, includes the 6-acre sewage plant site.

The commission's action was confined to authorizing preparation of plans for the plant on the forest service lands.

The commission was informed that the plant would cost approximately $520,000 to construct on forest service property, and approximately $258,000 on the Poulsen site. However, the value of the Poulsen land, when determined, would be added to the latter cost figure.

Location of the plant on the federal site would continue its service area to the Olympic faciilties, which will become part of the state park system after the games.

In other action, the commission:

Accepted the $649,500 low bid of Diversified Builders, Inc., of Montebello, for construction of an athletes' lounge, press building and reception center.

Accepted the $264,644 low bid of the York Corporation to provide refrigeration equipment for the icing of four rinks.

THE APE-MAN HAS JUST PERSUADED MR. CONWAY TO GIVE PHELPS ANOTHER CHANCE AT A LUMBER CONTRACT.

CONWAY INSTRUCTED HIS LOGGERS. "I WANT TWO THIRTY-FOOT KHAYA TIMBERS FROM EACH OF YOU-- RAFTED AND DELIVERED IN ONE WEEK."

"GOOD! BUT DON'T COUNT ON M'SIEU GLENN PHELPS," SNEERED PIERRE. "HE'LL BE BUSY WITH THIS--"

"I APPRECIATE YOUR KINDNESS, BUT I'LL PROBABLY FAIL AGAIN," SAID GLENN. "WHY SO PESSIMISTIC?" TARZAN ASKED.
